Meet the Trainer Evening at The Greenway

Hosted by Kim Bailey, Grand National Winning Racehorse Trainer
The Grand National - Mr Frisk, The Gold Cup - Master Oats, The Champion Hurdle - Alderbrook

in support of Help for Heroes

Thursday 11th March from 7pm
Dinner Tickets £49.50 per person*

A fabulous opportunity just before Cheltenham Race Week to meet local legend, Kim Bailey, the only living racehorse trainer to achieve this trio of race winning successes. Gain a unique insight into the fascinating world of National Hunt Racing and enjoy a sumptuous three course dinner prepared by award-winning Head Chef, Paul Mottram, followed by an after dinner talk by Kim. You will also be introduced to The Heroes Partnership, set up by Kim to support Help the Heros, enabling you to buy shares in a racehorse and enjoy the thrill of being a horse owner at a fraction of the cost. The next morning, you are invited to visit Kim's yard at Andoversford to see his horses and the gallops. An unmissable evening with a charity raffle for Help for Heroes.

Booking is essential and full payment will be taken on booking.

* Evening includes sparkling wine and canapés reception, three course dinner with a bottle of house wine per couple, coffee and petit fours and after dinner talk by Kim Bailey as well as an opportunity to visit Kim's yard at Andoversford the following morning.

Odds are that this is an event that you won't want to miss!
